Introduction

Welcome to the termly PSHE and Careers Newsletter. This goes out to all staff, parents/carers, the governing body and other stakeholders. Personal Development is a fundamental part of preparing students for their future. The programme at Rise Carr College and Eldon House is fully inclusive of all students, and is constantly monitored and evaluated to ensure it meets the needs of everyone. We hope that you will find this useful and informative. If you have any feedback on what you have read or have items you wish us to include in future editions, please let us know.

“We fundamentally believe in the DEVELOPMENT of the WHOLE PERSON and their individual needs to be THE BEST THEY CAN BE”

The aim of the PSHE curriculum is to produce students who are equipped with life skills, which will allow them to be fully participating members of a fast changing British and global society. Using a bespoke programme that has been developed with KS3 and KS4 Leads for RCC which incorporates the Cre8tive PSHE curriculum, our students will develop a sense of self-worth and confidence to be the best version of themselves. They will mature into individuals who can think independently and critically, and have the knowledge to make informed choices around their physical, mental, sexual, emotional and economic wellbeing.

Relationships, Sex and Health Education (RSHE)

This is covered in Autumn 2 and we have attached some parent/carer information.

Any Questions, please contact Lisa KS3 or Kirsty KS4.

We believe RSHE is an important aspect of the PSHE programme which makes a significant contribution to the development of personal skills needed by students to establish and maintain positive, healthy relationships. RSHE enables young people to make responsible and well-informed decisions about their health and wellbeing. It supports students in forming positive beliefs and attitudes about sex and sexuality, relationships and feelings.

RSHE is taught in a spiral curriculum, meaning that topics are repeated as they progress up the year groups adding further detail to the subject for an age appropriate understanding. Resources for teaching are taken from the PSHE Association and our bespoke curriculum which we have developed with Cre8tive Resources.

Parents and Carers – Talking Futures...

It has long been acknowledged that the most influential people in a young person's life are their parents or carers, and that many of the ideas related to their careers and future are formulated in their early school years and through conversations with family members. Talking Futures is a recently released suite of resources, designed to help schools support parents to have informed and constructive careers and education conversations with their children.

The website is full of useful information and guidance on the various pathways available. There are loads of helpful conversation starting points to help parents approach the subject with their children, which can be the trickiest part. The earlier these conversations take place, the more informed and prepared students are when they reach Year 11. Visit the site at <https://www.talkingfutures.org.uk> and make it your go-to website for recent information!

All students have access to a Careers Programme, and in Year 10 and 11 this includes appointments with an Independent Careers Advisor.

Work Experience is encouraged and this is undertaken on an individual basis dependent on what is beneficial for each student.

Career Road Maps which show what students are covering within their curriculum can be found on our website.
